

FAIR ASSOCIATION SECURES LICENSE

Judge Shackelford Grants Permit to Sell Liquor on Grounds.

EFFECT IN THE PAST

Witnesses Testify that They Have Seen More Drunkenness at So. Call'd Dry Exhibitions.

Richmond, July 11.—A hard-fought battle over the granting of a license to the Virginia State Fair Association to sell liquor on the grounds was concluded late yesterday afternoon, when Judge George S. Shackelford, in the Circuit Court of Henrico county, after listening to a mass of testimony from numerous witnesses and hearing lengthy arguments from attorneys, ordered that a license be granted to the association. The entire day was occupied with the case, and before rendering his decision Judge Shackelford briefly reviewed each contested point and explained the application of the law. In arriving at his conclusion, the judge stated that he had sought not to be influenced by the private or personal opinion of any one in the matter, and that while he had the most profound reverence for the judge who last granted a license to the association, what had no weight with him in making a ruling in the case just settled. "Under the law," said Judge Shackelford, "it is my opinion that the association should be granted a license."

From the time court convened yesterday morning and the first witness testified until after 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when the judge's decision was rendered, there was not a time when interest lagged in the proceedings. The courtroom was well filled with spectators throughout the day, those of prohibition persuasion forming the greater part of the on-lookers. Several women prominent in antiscandal affairs were interested listeners. Attorneys Hill Carter and Leigh R. Page appeared for the association, while Attorney W. C. Willey represented the protestants. Prominent among the witnesses testifying were former Governor William Hodges Mann, Attorney General John Garland Pollard.

NORMAL SCHOOL BOARD.

Appoints Committee to Draw Plan of Reorganization for System.

Richmond, July 11.—Organization of the new State Normal School Board, recently appointed by the Governor, was effected and a tentative plan of business procedure agreed upon at a meeting held by the board members in the office of the State executive yesterday.

The members of the new board, all of whom were present, are Richard B. Davis, Petersburg; W. W. King, Staunton; O. F. Mears, Eastville; Merritt T. Cooke, Norfolk; W. Clyde Locker, Richmond; O. L. Shewmake, Surry; George B. Russell, Charlotte; Brock T. White, Keokuk; V. R. Shackelford, Orange; John W. Price, Bristol; Alfred G. Preston, Amsterdam.

Judge John W. Price, of Bristol, was elected temporary chairman, and V. R. Shackelford, of Orange, secretary. After a long discussion of different features suggested for a plan of recognition for the normal school system, a committee organization was named whose duty it shall be to formulate a suitable plan and make a report thereon. This committee consists of the following: R. B. Davis, Petersburg; M. Cooke, Norfolk; Alfred G. Preston, Botetourt; W. W. King, Staunton, and W. Clyde Locker, Richmond.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Rev. Thomas J. McCormick, assistant director of the New York diocesan branch of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, has received a letter from Father Hood, a missionary in India. The latter describes how a dealer in molasses, on his way home from Rangpur, went to sleep at night curled up in the road under his cart, and was swallowed whole by a hungry python. The snake, which was killed later, measured 21 feet in length.

Rover, a powerful mastiff owned by Richard Graham, a well-known farmer, living in Pymatuning township, Pa., saved the lives of Louis and Philip Graham, aged 8 and 10, respectively, yesterday. When they fell into the Chenango River, neither boy could swim, and the dog witnessing their struggles from the bank, jumped in and quickly dragged one of the boys to shore. Then he returned and got the other.

Civil war in Ulster appears nearer than at any time since Ulster threw down the glove. Sir Edward Carson was welcomed with cheers and revolver shots on his arrival at Belfast yesterday. The leader made a defiant and uncompromising speech at the first meeting of the Ulster provisional government officials. Everybody here believes it will be a miracle if the twelfth of July celebrations pass without a collision between the Unionist and Nationalist forces.

A warning that trouble is liable to result from China's refusal to sign the convention in regard to what territory shall compose outer and inner Tibet, reached by the recent convention at Darjeeling, India, was issued to China yesterday by Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary.

With three believed to be dead, hundreds homeless, and thousands of dollars worth of property damaged, Scranton and vicinity were visited by a cloudburst yesterday that will tip up most of the traffic on two or more railroads for three days. Bridges on the Lackawanna and the Delaware and Hudson roads were swept away.

Mrs. Carmelia Fisk, prominent churchworker and clubwoman, Ioda, committed suicide at Colfax yesterday by leaping from the fourth story window of a hotel. Worry over the imprisonment of her son for embezzlement was believed to have been the cause.

No attempt was made by anarchists today to hold the proposed funeral parade in honor of the men who were killed in the bomb explosion last Saturday in New York. This was announced by Alexander Berkman late yesterday.

W. George Newman, the promoter of the Gold Hill mine, asserted before the Senate Committee yesterday that Representative Flood, of Virginia, was a stockholder to the extent of 6,500 shares.

CARS KILL TWO CHILDREN.

Boy Crushed in Sight of Mother, Girl Hit on Thursday Succumb.

Philadelphia, July 11.—A baby boy was instantly killed by a trolley car in South Philadelphia yesterday, and a 3-year-old girl died in the Frankford Hospital as the result of injuries received on Thursday night, when a car struck her. Both children ran directly in front of the moving cars while playing, it is said.

Two-year-old Israel Wallinsky ran in the way of a car near his home, No. 429 Lombard street, and was crushed to death before his mother's eyes. The other victim was Tun Cassiller, whose parents live at No. 2215 Orthodox street, Frankford. The motormen of the cars were in both cases held by Magistrate Renshaw, in the Central station, to await the action of the Coroner.

The names of the citizens qualified to vote at the September election will be posted this afternoon.

WANTED—Elderly lady, able to do housework and care for children. Phone Fort Hunt. Ask for Sergeant Salyers. 11-11.

DIED—JAMES W. ROBERTS, in his 64th year, at 12 o'clock Friday, July 10th. The funeral will take place from his late home, "Cameron," at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, July 12th. Interment private. Please omit flowers.

48,521 PERSONS SIGN PETITION

Other Lists to Come in Expected to Considerably Swell Number.

MAY BE A LARGE VOTE

Prohibitionists Optimistic, Prophecy Sweeping Victory at Polls Next September.

Richmond, July 11.—When the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth closed yesterday afternoon there had been received at the office petitions for the Statewide election in September that showed a total number of 48,521 names actually certified to the secretary by the clerks of the various courts.

This number represents a great influx of petitions to the office all day and for the past several days. It was stated that many more were expected in, and that another count will be made when it is reasonably sure that most of the petitions now out have been received.

That more petitions are to come is evidenced by the fact that none of the Richmond petitions have been filed, and several other sections where large numbers of names are known to have been secured are not yet registered in the secretary's office. There were represented no more than a little over half the State in the eighty-five petitions in the office, as it is certain there are numbers yet to come.

UNDRESSED BY LIGHTNING.

Caught by Separate Bolts in the Same Storm, Each Succumbs, But Revives Later.

Charlottesville, Va., July 11.—Lightning played queer pranks with two men during the heavy thunder and lightning storm here late Thursday night. In both instances the clothing was stripped off the men; but they are still alive to tell the tale.

Henry Ramsey, a workman employed in the cellar of the H. C. Devore Hardware Company, while standing in the draft of an open window, saw a blinding glare, and felt himself hurled into the air. Several hours later, when he was missed, a search was instituted, and he was found, unconscious, against the further wall of the cellar, entirely nude. The clothing had been stripped from his body. When he revived a short time later his injuries were found to be of a minor nature. Later some of his clothing was found smoldering, from the effect of the bolt.

Joe Janso, a trackman on the Donora & Southern Railway, while patrolling his stretch of track, was thrown to the ground, his arm crushed and all his garments ripped from his body by a bolt of lightning. The man lay in a perilous position on the track for some time before he was discovered by foreigners on their way home from the mines. He was resuscitated and found to be uninjured.

Janso probably owes his life to the miners, as an early morning freight train was about due at the spot where he was found.

NORFOLK GIRL ELOPES.

Parents Had Taken Clothes and Locked Her in Room.

Norfolk, Va., July 11.—Leaping from the window of her room, in which she had been locked, in an effort to prevent her marriage, her street clothing having been taken also, Miss Berenice Toy, James, in slippers and rain coat, made her way to a friend's home nearby. She telephoned to Mrs. George L. Wadsworth, sister of Lewis Cass Jones, the man of her choice, and told of her predicament.

Mrs. Wadsworth, herself a bride of a few months, notified her brother, and immediately set off with some clothing for the young bride-to-be. A motorcycle with a side carriage was brought into use, and at 9 o'clock, in the presence of a few friends, the young couple were united by the Rev. Thomas A. Smoot.

FIREMEN'S CONVENTION

Alexandria Department Will Be Represented at Portsmouth.

Plans are being made by the members of the three fire companies of this city for attending the annual meeting of the Virginia State Firemen's Convention, which will be held August 27-29 next in Portsmouth. Invitations to attend have been received by the different companies.

Two of three companies will elect delegates to the convention at meetings which will be held in August and one will elect delegates the latter part of this month.

The Relief Hook and Ladder Company at its meeting held last night received an invitation to attend the convention.

It is expected that fully fifty firemen from the three companies of this city will attend the convention.

Final plans for attending will be outlined within a short time.

MOOSE PLANS COMPLETED.

Washington Lodge of Moose Beauty Prize to Alexandria Lady.

The joint committee representing Alexandria and Washington Lodge of Moose, met last night and Washington Lodge offered to give a prize to the most beautiful Alexandria lady on the excursion.

Three members of Washington, whose names are not known to any Alexandrian, are the judges. Alexandria Lodge, through courtesy to Washington Lodge, makes the same offer to Washington Lodge. This will create quite an interest and great rivalry between the two cities for the distinction of having the most beautiful lady.

The name of the lady who may receive the high honor will be announced on the pavilion at 10 o'clock.

The prizes for athletics now number twenty-seven, with more to be added and all will have a chance to compete for the athletic honors.

The ball game will take place on the arrival of the afternoon boat. The Holy Name Band will play on the 2:30 trip. The Alexandria musical Association on the 7:15 trip.

The boat will leave Mutual Ice Company wharf at 10:15, 2:30 and 7:15. Everything possible for the comfort and pleasure of the families of the Moose and their friends has been provided. The committee at the boat landing will be the following: Dr. E. A. Gorman, J. H. Harrington, Dr. J. T. Ashton, W. L. Rammel, R. A. Harris, J. W. Varney, E. C. Turner, Dr. Richard Gibson, John Duncan, A. E. Gray, S. J. Barnhouse, C. E. Booker, M. J. McFarland, M. H. Summers, F. L. Wood, J. J. Kelly and A. T. Campbell.

DEATH OF ALEXANDRIAN

W. A. Crupper Succumbs After Operation in Richmond.

William Ashton Crupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ashton Brook Crupper, a former resident of this city, and late train dispatcher for the Seaboard Air Line at Richmond, died at the Retreat for the Sick in that city under an operation about 8:30 last night. The deceased was in the thirty-fifth year of his age.

The remains will be brought to the home of his parents, at 117 North Payne street.

He leaves a widow, who was Miss Annie Maybelle Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Newton, and four children, Ashton, Wilhelmina Mildred and Douglas. His brothers are John and W. Berkeley Crupper and two sisters, Miss Charlotte Crupper and Mrs. Stuart Watkins.

KILLING OF J. W. ROBERTS.

Coroner's Jury Will Meet at Office of Alexandria Water Company Tonight.

A coroner's jury summoned by Magistrate George C. Stuart, of Fairfax county, met at the home of the late J. W. Roberts at "Cameron" last night but adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight when it will meet at the office of the Alexandria Water Company and hear the witnesses, among them the crew of the train which struck and killed Mr. Roberts yesterday.

The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from "Cameron," and the interment will be private.

CLOUDBURSTS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Miners 200 Feet Below Surface Have Thrilling Experience.

FIVE PERSONS DROWN

Railroad Bridges Swept Away and Traffic Brought to Standstill—Work of Lightning.

Scranton, Pa., July 11.—Following a cloudburst in the mountains east of this city yesterday afternoon, Scranton and its immediate environs suffered the worst storm in their history, the total damage of which will easily run to hundreds of thousands of dollars. Service on the Lackawanna, the Delaware and Hudson, the Erie and the Ontario and Western was put completely out. Dozens of houses, including a school and a church, were struck by lightning, and hundreds of houses in the lowlands of the city were flooded.

The storm and attendant flood were not without their thrilling moments, for at Archbald, a few miles north of the city, 25 men were caught in a mine 200 feet below the surface, when a dam burst and a creek overflowed its banks and found its way into the mine workings through a surface cave hole.

They received warning of the danger just in time to take measures for safety and managed to escape to the surface by wading through water up to their shoulders, which flowed down an old air course and landed them on the banks of the Lackawanna River.

One man, Wadislav Bushno, lost his footing and was carried on the crest of the flood through the mine workings, finally landing on rocks at the opening in a badly battered and bruised condition.

At Jermyn an 8-year-old boy by the name of Donald Maren, fell into an old mine cave-hole, which had filled with water and was drowned. In this city Clemens Weinschank, Joseph Ellis and John Durkin were standing on the banks of the Lackawanna River, watching the flood, when a train came along and they were brushed into the stream.

All three clung to the trunk of a tree, rapidly floating and expecting every minute that they would be pulled from the water, while dozens of people ran along shore for miles calling to the boys to keep up their courage.

When the tree trunk reached a point near Taylor, about four miles below this city, it overturned, and the three boys were plunged into the water. A man swam out into the stream and managed to pull Weinschank to the shore, but the other two drifted on down and finally sank.

Two bridges were washed out on the Lackawanna Railroad, almost within the city limits, completely tying up traffic on the road and making it necessary to route all trains through to New York by way of the Lehigh Valley tracks, while one bridge on the D. and H. in this city was carried away and three city bridges were washed out.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT.

Following instructions from the court a jury in the United States Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Judge Edmund Wadill presiding, this afternoon brought in a verdict for the defendant corporation in the suit of H. B. Hutchinson against the New York and Philadelphia Company, a corporation.

The object of the suit was to recover the sum of $40,000 for damages alleged to have been done to a large tract of timber land in Prince William County leased by defendant corporation from plaintiff.

A motion to overrule the verdict was refused and plaintiff was given until October 1st next in which to file a bill of exemptions.

COURT NOTES.

The July term of the Corporation Court, Judge L. C. Barley, will commence Monday.

A. L. Ramer, charged with disorderly conduct on an electric car, renewed his bond to appear at the October term. Ramer appealed from a decision of the Police Court.

NAMES BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

New Department of State Will Pass on Applicants to Practice Dentistry.

Richmond, July 11.—Governor H. C. Stuart has announced the following as dental examiners: To serve one year—Dr. J. L. Walker, of Norfolk; Dr. E. U. Potter, of Roanoke. Two years—Dr. R. C. Lewis, Culpeper; Dr. J. V. Haller, Wytheville. Three years—Dr. H. W. Campbell, Suffolk; Dr. J. P. Stiff, Fredericksburg.

The board, which will pass upon the applications of dentists desiring to practice their profession in Virginia, will be formally organized at a meeting to be called in a short time.

The Governor also announced appointments to the board of visitors of the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College and Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg: P. F. St. Clair, Giles; W. C. Shackelford, Albemarle; Dr. W. O. Harris, Spotsylvania; and R. Samuel Craig, Richmond. The appointees are named for a term of four years, beginning July 1.

TROUBLE IS LIKELY

Any Display of Urn Bearing Ashes of Anarchists Will Be Signal for Officers to Charge Mob.

New York, July 11.—Orders practically equivalent to those issued for strike or riot duty today held 5,000 policemen in reserve in every station house in Greater New York, to be ready to put down by force the threatened demonstration of anarchists in Union Square.

Mayor Mitchell and Police Commissioner Woods have ordered that the remains of Hansen, Caron, and Berg, killed in the bomb explosion last Saturday, are not to be shown at the I. W. W. anarchist meeting. Frank Cancellieri, leader of the "radical wing" of the anarchists, today declared the urn containing the ashes of the three men would be met at Thirty-fourth Street Ferry, and after funeral services on West 119th street, be carried to Union Square, where Alexander Berkman, leader of the "Conservative Anarchists," has arranged a meeting.

Anticipating defiance of the orders by Cancellieri, 600 uniformed police and scores of plain clothes men early today were stationed at Thirty-fourth street ferry to prevent the Italians from taking the urn to 119th street.

Inspector Schmittberger, who was today placed in charge of the situation, declared he will break up any semblance of an organized parade to follow the remains, but that as long as traffic is not interrupted and the friends of the three bomb victims remain orderly, he will not interfere with them.

The real trouble, if any comes, was expected at the Union Square demonstration. Fully 20,000 persons are expected to gather to hear eulogies on the three bomb victims. The appearance of the urn there will be the signal for the police to charge the mob.

KILLED FELLING TREE.

Man is Crushed to Death and Pinned Down.

Philadelphia, July 11.—Caught under a falling tree, after he had chopped it down, Frederick Strahacker, 51 years old, who lived in a small house at the rear of the Philadelphia County, Fair Grounds, Byberry, was instantly killed in Hoagland's woods, near the Byberry road and Bustleton pike, yesterday. Strahacker and Frank Stevens, with whom he was working, were cutting down trees in the woods during the morning, and the accident occurred while Stevens was absent for a short time. When he returned he found the man pinned under the heavy tree.

MUTUAL ICE COMPANY.NEW BAPTIST CHURCH*Rev. O. W. Triplett, Pastor, Will Deliver First Sermon in Structure Tomorrow.

One of the most attractive edifices in this section of Virginia, is the Second Baptist Church, recently built at the corner of King and Peyton streets. The church building is modern in every detail. It is of colonial design, with gothic effect. The Sunday School is separated from the church by the latest improved sliding doors. The seating capacity of the building is near 500. The pastor's room, the choir arrangement and the baptistry deserve especial mention, as they are of the latest design.

Miss Fannie Burke, Alexandria's talented artist, will present a painting of a baptism scene on the River Jordan to be placed in the rear over the water. The church will be steam heated.

The deacons are Messrs. Bender, Hulfish, Henderson, Kerrick, Rawlins and Kidwell. George K. Bender is superintendent of the Sunday School. Mr. T. P. Henderson is the secretary and J. H. Hulfish treasurer.

On tomorrow Rev. O. W. Triplett, the pastor, will preach his first sermon in the new building. His subject in the morning will be "Guarding the Past vs Storming the Fort." At night he will preach on "Christ, the Friend of Sinners."

The Second Baptist Church was organized several years ago with about 30 members, and it has added to the fold until there are now 90 on the rolls. Eight will be baptized tomorrow night.

The building was constructed by Julian D. Knight, contractor, Mr. James A. Clark, of this city, was the architect. It will be dedicated the first week in August, when one of the most prominent divines in the Southern Baptist Convention—Rev. George W. McDaniel, of Richmond, will preach. Other prominent ministers will preach and assist in the services.

At the Washington Street M. E. Church South, the service tomorrow evening will be in the church at 8 o'clock, and not on the lawn as had been announced.

The Rev. G. A. Luttrell, pastor of of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, this city, will exchange pulpits tomorrow with the Rev. Ellis G. West, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Falls Church.

Rev. A. D. D. Clark, of Manassas, will preach at both the morning and evening service at 11:00 a. m., at evening service. At 11 a. m., his subject will be The Filial and Fraternal Love of Jesus. At 8 p. m. his subject will be (Sauls) Record. All are cordially invited to hear him.

Rev. C. R. Strausburg, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, will occupy the pulpit at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Subject for evening service will be: "What Jesus Taught About Poverty."

At the Second Presbyterian Church at the morning services Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor, will take for his subject: "The Gospel of a Personal Power." Evening will be evangelistic.

The main Sunday School and the Payne street Sunday School will hold services at 9:30 o'clock and there will be special music given at each by the choir.

Early yesterday afternoon a rumor spread in this city to the effect that the boilers of the excursion steamer St. Johns had exploded while the boat was on her way to Colonial Beach. A telephone message was sent from the Gazette office to Reardon & Grimes, agents of the steamer, and they positively denied the correctness of the report.

The rumor notwithstanding soon spread over the city, causing the greatest anxiety to relatives and friends of Alexandrians who left here at 9:30 in the morning for Colonial Beach. The report was to the effect that the accident occurred somewhere between Liverpool Point and Maryland Point. The anxious friends of some of the Alexandria passengers telephoned to the beach, and they were greatly relieved when told that the steamer was at the resort and that nothing had occurred to mar the pleasure of the excursionists. This information, however, did not reach all who were vitally interested, and it was until the steamer Newport News from Norfolk arrived at her dock shortly after seven o'clock that the terrible strain relaxed. The officers of that steamer reported that when the Newport News passed Colonial Beach between three and four o'clock the St. Johns was lying at the wharf with no signs of having suffered from an accident.

The St. Johns reached this port about on time last night. Many persons had gathered on the wharf to welcome the returning excursionists.

Will Come Up Monday.

THE KILLING OF JAMES W. ROBERTS.

The fatal accident to James W. Roberts about noon yesterday at the same place and about the same hour his father, R. F. Roberts, lost his life nearly thirty years ago, has revived interest in a movement inaugurated some time ago by the Chamber of Commerce of this city and the Board of Supervisors of Fairfax County to bring about safe conditions at Telegraph Road crossing, about one hundred yards west of the road on which the distressing accident to J. W. Roberts occurred. Telegraph Road is the main highway from Fairfax County to Alexandria. For many years but one railroad track existed at the crossing. At present there may be a dozen. Trains fly past in both directions, and occasionally there is some serious mishap at that place, with many narrow escapes. W. E. Sisson, it will be remembered, lost his life at this dangerous crossing a few years ago.

While Roberts Road, or crossing, may be termed a private road, it is a highway nevertheless, and the fact that father and son have been killed at this place is proof conclusive that some safeguard should exist there. The victim of the unfortunate accident yesterday was the first to reach the scene when his father was struck and killed by a pay train, September 13, 1884. The future is said to be veiled by the hand of mercy, and he was oblivious to the fact that he thirty years later would be lying at the same spot with a fractured skull and beyond human aid.

Some time ago the State Corporation Commission ordered the railroad companies, whose tracks cross the Telegraph Road, to provide safe means for pedestrians and vehicles to cross the same. It was proposed to elevate the tracks or to provide overhead accommodations.

The railroad companies demurred to the order of the commission and took the case to the Court of Appeals. That tribunal set aside the order of the commission. No further steps have been taken to change present conditions.

NEGRO BOYS NEAR LYNCHING.

They are Rushed to Raleigh, N. C., for Safe Keeping.

Raleigh, N. C., July 11.—Two negro boys about 16 years old, were brought here Thursday morning to the State's prison for safekeeping, charged with attempted criminal assault upon a Miss Daughtridge, daughter of Lock Daughtridge, of Rocky Mount, the crime having been committed Thursday afternoon near the home of the girl in Edgecombe county. Her father is a well-known contractor at Rocky Mount. The officers who brought the boys here, first carried them to Rocky Mount, Nash county, for fear there would be an attempt to lynch them if kept in Edgecombe.

Thursday night conditions developed at Rocky Mount that made the officers fear that there might be attempts to lynch them, and so the prisoners were hustled into an automobile and carried across country to Franklin, where they boarded a train for Raleigh, arriving here they got permission to place their prisoners in the penitentiary. The names of the two negroes are Fletcher Winstead, 17 years old, and William Holland, 16 years old.

The officers say the plot the boys had hatched up for the crime was that the older boy was to attack the older sister and then, when the younger sister came, the other was to have her for a victim. However, a brother also came when the older girl gave the alarm, and the two boys had to run, being soon captured by those who responded to the alarm.

New Bern, July 11.—David Pearson, an 18-year-old negro, whose home is in Onslow County, is in jail at Jacksonville, charged with a serious offense. Pearson has been employed as a logger in the Roper Lumber Company's camp near Richlands, and, according to reports brought to New Bern on last Sunday afternoon, he went to the home of Robert L. Leary, near that place, for the purpose of purchasing some chickens and farm products.

On being informed by Mr. Leary's wife that there was no one at home, except herself and her small child, it is claimed that Pearson seized and choked her and attempted to commit assault.

Mrs. Leary succeeded in freeing herself and seizing a shotgun, drove him from the premises. During the melee Mrs. Leary screamed and her cries were heard by a white man and as Pearson was attempting to escape the former got a good glimpse of him and was able to identify him when he was taken into custody several hours later.

Pearson was carried to Jacksonville and yesterday afternoon was arraigned before Mayor H. C. Kennedy for a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the next term of Onslow County Superior Court under a bond of five hundred dollars, which he was unable to give, and in consequence he was remanded to jail to await trial.

A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE.

To set for your photograph in the evening and have your own likeness delivered to you inside of a half hour is an experienced the writer had the other evening at the White Studio at 502 King street, and all it cost me was a quarter.

Mr. Gunby, the proprietor, and manager, tells me that he expects to photograph every one in Alexandria in the near future as he has made his prices so reasonable that folks cannot afford to go without having their picture taken.

He also tells me that he is doing a lot of finishing for "kodakers" for though he has only been with us a short time they realize that he "delivers the goods" in not only quality but also in prices and speed.

Having come from New York where every body's middle name is "speed," he simply can't get out of the habit.

Mr. Gunby has photographed over 100,000 in all styles from the penny pinching to the largest plates used and he promises to spring some novelties on us in the near future that will open our eyes, so let's all keep our eyes on 502 King street.

I am sure success will crown his efforts as Alexandria always has room for "a live one."

AVOID GRADES.

Southern Railway to Build New From Danville to Dry Fork.

Richmond, July 11.—President Fairfax Harrison, of the Southern Railway, was in the city Thursday. He called at the office of the clerk of the State Corporation Commission and filed with that officer a request for permission to build a new line from Danville to Dry Fork, a distance of thirteen miles, and to abandon the present grade between these points.

Mr. Harrison explained that the Southern is engaged in doubling its tracks and that in order to avoid the very heavy grade on the existing line the commission was asked to be allowed to abandon the old line.

This will bring the road across the country and will avoid the line which strikes the river about a mile on the north and east of Danville and will take the trains to the main line between Richmond and Danville at a point about half a mile east of the bridge.

The papers were read by the commissioners and an order was entered granting the necessary permission.

Call Barbers to Time.

Richmond, Va., July 11.—Barbers of the State have been given their last warning by the State Board of Health and they will hereafter be held to strict accountability for their failure to comply with the new sanitary regulations.

These regulations, which are printed by the board and can be had free upon request by all barbers, manicurists and chiropodists in the State, have been printed in most newspapers of the State and have the force of law. All barbers are warned for the last time to send for the regulations and to prepare at once for compliance with them.

SISTERS HELD FOR MURDER

Two Accused of Killing Brother in Dixon, Ill.

Dixon, Ill., July 11.—Mrs. Emma Hutton and Miss Lillie Byers are held to the Grand Jury without bail on a charge of having shot and killed their brother, Emmanuel Byers, Thursday. There had been frequent disagreements between the brother and the sisters, and, according to witnesses, the 2 women went to Byers' hayfield Thursday and calling him to the roadside shot him four times.

The court was told that each of the sisters fired shots which struck their brother, but Mrs. Hutton tried to shield her sister and said that she alone did the shooting. It was reported that the two women practiced shooting at a mark in their orchard for several days.

An attempt was made by unknown parties Thursday night to wreck the city water plant at Fairmont, W. Va. Had it succeeded Fairmont would have been entirely without fire protection for days.

LEAPS ON KING'S AUTOMOBILE

Militant Suffragette Enrages Crowds in Streets of Perth.

Perth, Scotland, July 11.—A militant suffragette, uttering an exultant yell, sprang onto the fender of an automobile in which King George and Queen Mary were driving through the streets of Perth yesterday.

The woman, who was identified as Rhoda Fleming, from Glasgow, seized the handle of the door of the royal automobile before the police could act. Two then seized her and it required a score of mounted soldiers to hold at bay the angry mob bent on lynching her.

Miss Fleming was armed only with a petition against the forcible feeding of imprisoned suffragettes. A large force of troops was requisitioned to protect her from the populace as she was conveyed to the police station.

Earlier in the day, in Dundee, the King and Queen received attention from another suffragette, who pitched a bundle of papers into their motor-car.

POLICE CHIEF PUT OFF SHIP

American Captain Refuses to Allow Canadian to Serve Summons.

St. Catherine, Ontario, July 11.—A Canadian chief of police was thrown, he alleges, from the steamer Cadillac, an American vessel, to a canal bank yesterday when he boarded the ship to serve a summons on Captain Sullivan. Sullivan contended that no British peace officer had the right to board an American vessel, and according to the complainant, ordered two of his officers and the crew to deposit the chief of police on the bank.

Captain Sullivan was later arrested by two police officers from Port Dalhousie and held in $4,000 bail.

NEGRO ELECTROCUTED

William Calloway Rotted His Six-Year-Old Son.

Richmond, July 11.—William Calloway, a middle-aged negro, died in the electric chair at the penitentiary here yesterday morning for the murder of a six-year-old negro boy, whom he roasted alive over an open fire in Lee County a few months ago.

The crime was participated in by a negro woman, claiming to be the wife of Calloway, who was an aunt of the childish victim.

The negroes were crossing over from Tennessee into Kentucky through Lee County, Va., when their provisions gave out, and, in order to dispense with the feeding and care of the negro child, which accompanied them, they deliberately burned it to death.

The woman was sentenced to 18 years in the State prison. She has entered upon her term.

BOY DROWNED.

Member of Sunday School Picnic Party, Loses Life in Water at Virginia Beach.

Norfolk, Va., July 11.—Released from the grasp of his companion, Sidney L. Maxey, who had made valiant efforts to save him, but was forced to let go his hold to prevent himself being carried under by the drowning boy, William S. Tebo, Jr., sixteen years old, son of William S. Tebo, of Suffolk, was drowned Thursday afternoon in the Atlantic Ocean about one block north of the Casino at Virginia Beach.

The drowning occurred about seventy-five yards off shore. Young Tebo, Maxey, Ryland Luke and B. B. Butt, all companion, came down to Virginia Beach on the excursion of Sunday Schools of the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches, of Suffolk. All four went out about seventy-five yards from shore, when a life guard called them back. Luke and Butt returned to shore, but Tebo and Maxey started to swim up the coast towards Cape Henry.

After swimming about a block Tebo's strength began to give out, and he called out to Maxey to assist him. Maxey took hold of the struggling boy and started shoreward. Maxey was dragged under, then released Tebo and swam ashore to give the alarm. Tebo's body has not been recovered.

DIVIDEND DECLARED

Echo of Failure of Commonwealth Bank in Richmond.

Richmond, July 11.—A dividend of about 25 per cent will be paid depositors who had money in the Commonwealth Bank, which went into the hands of receivers, John B. Lightfoot, Jr., and James W. Gordon, last fall. At least this is the report and suggestion of the commissioners who have filed the papers with the Chancery Court. The money will be paid provided the court approves the action. It is expected that the money will be paid about July 20.

When the Commonwealth bank was forced to close its doors last year, it was stated that the assets would be adequate to meet the obligations to depositors, but on account of the fact that a large part of the securities was real estate paper, the commissioners did not think it advisable to rush into a sale of this property, but advised holding for a better market.

While the commissioners are not in a position to give out definitely the full amount that will be paid depositors, it is stated that the proposed dividend of 25 per cent is only the first instalment, and that other dividends will follow.

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. Chamberlain's Tablets helped me at once and by using them for several weeks I was cured of the complaint," writes Mrs. Mary E. McMullen, Phelps, N. Y.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die, and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the women's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

E. J. FLEMING,

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering from the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands? That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SURVEILLANT SURGEON of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institute on application), writes regarding a patient: "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. G. T. RICHARDSON frankly writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent." To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied, according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

At once—the moment the fluid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.
